Goods for the Northwestern

Coest Market dect

A h story of the FARMERS AND MECTANICS STORE having already appeared in ful in our catalogues, which found election al over the Northwest Coast, it is unecessary to re terme its trials and combats. We, Ike many others, egan our career with a limited capital; though, unlike many others, we a wazs pursued from the very beginning a liberal policy in our relations with our patrons. We were, like many others are to ay, compelier to be a rassal to the closef sted San Francisco merchant thoug 1, unlike those many others, full bene it, of the fluctuations in the market. That our style of transacting business met with the approval of the cop e s sel-evi
